ABOUT ME

I'm a designer turned front-end developer with over 8 years of professional experience building websites and web applications for a wide range of different companies.

I'm currently looking for new and exciting consulting opportunities where I can contribute my unique talent of being a front-end developer with a design background to help create the best possible web products and user-experiences.

WORK EXPERIENCE

CELLA CONSULTING (CHEVRON CORPORATION)

Front-end Developer Contractor, Oct '16 - Present

- Build new internal web projects as part of Chevron's in-house creative studio.
- Delivered two large scale projects on time and on budget during the past 12 months.
- Guide and support junior developers in our Web Operations team.
- Act as a bridge between our design and development teams to create a better web product.

ASK DOSS

Front-end Development Consultant, Oct '16 - Aug '17

- Responsible for UI/UX development of the first prototype for AskDOSS; a voice-powered real estate search engine.
- Turned Photoshop mockups into fully functional and responsive pages for all of the application's screens.
- Worked closely with our main UI designer to resolve common design problems in mobile devices.

PRECASH

Web Producer Contractor, Aug '15 - Jan '16

- Built a new website that would reflect the shift in the company's bill payment business for 2016 and beyond.
- Made regular updates to the original PreCash site on AWS.
- Kept up and maintained legacy websites for some of PreCash's older products.

LOPEZ NEGRETE COMMUNICATIONS

Ecommerce Developer Contractor, Nov '13 - Jun '15

- Built a new e-commerce presence for one of LNC's subsidiary companies: Blue Leaf Houston.
- Integrated a third party gift-registry application that would be connected to their shopping cart.
- Provided consultant services for ecommerce logistics.
